Snakes Alive (!) Man's Back—Alive

Wesley Dickinson, whose very life was despaired of a few short months ago, is back from Chicago. The indefatigable Wesley, whose left arm was saved by specialists following a rattle snake bite at his work in the Long Beach zoo, is at it again.

Practically a Cypressan again, Wesley has moved the Long Beach zoological garden to a new location just west of the bridge across Coyote creek on Carson Ave. At present the zoo contains no snakes, Dickinson says.

The zoo is open to the public, and Roy Blackman is assistant to Dickinson.

The latter will return to Chicago in about four months for another operation on his arm. In the meantime he has no use of the member, being barely able to move his fingers.

Said In Cypress

That we think too much can not be said for the actions of a Cypress citizen such as Clarence Norland. Feeling that SOMETHING should be done in a situation as serious as that of the PE's withdrawing its passenger service through town, he sought names for a petition to be presented the proper authorities.

That this sort of enterprise is to be highly complimented. Indications are, however, that Orange county was caught napping, since the hearing last Thursday was reported to have been a cut and dried affair, with no chance of the peepul's" being heard anyway. But that does not excuse the lethargy displayed by a per cent of us which probably figures in the nineties.

That if you've ever wondered about the big Santa Fe bus which goes through town twice a day, E. E. Goodman was told that it is a service Santa Fe maintains to carry passengers between Fullerton and Long Beach.

That news for which the dog world has anxiously waited broke this week—a son was born to Lady Nina "O'Halloran" Doberman Pinscher, on Friday, Jan. 6th. She was being rushed to the vet to have her illness diagnosed, when the blessed event occurred. Not to be outdone by humans, Lady Nina gave birth to her son in the car!

That in the cat world, we think the Smith's Siamese "Kitty" Kitzel takes the cake. She enjoys their newly acquired television, and attempts to catch the moving objects on the screen. When she fails in this direction to get hold of anything tangible, she goes around to the back of the set to see just what "makes."

That both the huge gas tanks at Robinson motor, one for ethyl and one regular, were drained Monday evening before closing time, and the gas station had no gasoline to sell. This indicated that approximately 1,000 gallons were disposed of between Friday and Monday, and the Robinsons had to wait until Tuesday to replenish their stock.

SIMONDS VICTIM OF TOBAGGANING ACCIDENT IN SNOW

Last Saturday morning, at approximately 8:30, R. G. Simonds' plans for a day in the mountains to enjoy tobagganning in the snow were cut short.

Colliding with a tree, his heel was crushd in such a manner that a three or four months' period must elapse before an operation can be performed. It is reported that it will be another three or four months after that before it will heal.

Simonds works at Douglas.

VFW Sponsors Card Party Tomorrow Night

A card party, to which the public is invited, will be given by the VFW at its hall on Lincoln Ave. and Miller Rd., Saturday evening. Canasta will be featured, but the committee announces that there will be opportunity to play other games as well.

Beginning at eight o'clock, door prizes will be given and refreshments served.

The VFW hopes for a good community turn-out tomorrow evening.

SERVICES HELD FOR MRS. KUSSEROW FROM LOS ALAMITOS

Mrs. Luella E. Kusserow, 10861 South Chestnut St., died Thursday at her home. She was born in Minnesota.

Surviving are the widower, Edgar Ottow Kusserow; her mother, Mrs. Blanche Thompson, Long Beach; a brother, George Eversole of Temple City.

Private services were held in the chapel of the Arnold Funeral home in Artesia Saturday morning, with interment in Rose Hills Memorial park, Whittier.

CYPRESS POST OFFICE TOTAL RECEIPTS SHOW NICE GAIN FOR YEAR

Mrs. Ruth Pugh, postmaster, revealed this week that the final quarter's report for 1949 showed an increase over a similar period during 1948 of $290.36. Total receipts for the last quarter were $3,840.02 compared to $3,549.66 the year before.

For the year 1949 in its entirety, receipts totaled $10,031.36, while the total for 1948 was only $9,357.51, or an increase in the year's business of $673.85.

New Pamphlet For Dairymen

How to run a profitable dairy business in California is described in detail in circular 156 of the College of Agriculture now available at the Berkeley campus and all farm advisors.

It is written by two agriculturists in the University of California, Arthur Shultis and G. E. Gordon, and is entitled, "Dairy Farm Management in California."

Another free publication is "Ground Water in California — The Present State of Our Knowledge," by S. V. Ciriacy-Wantrup and Patricia McBride Bartz.

Requests may be addressed to 22 Giannini Hall, University of California, College of Agriculture, Berkeley 4, California. The latter circular should read "Attention, Agricultural Information Office."

WALLACE, WEATHER TABULATOR, COUNTS RAIN BY BUCKETSFUL

Two heavy downpours in the past week have combined to give Cypress a 1.86 lead in precipitation over the same period last year. "Dick" Wallace, who studies the rain gauge and keeps official tab here, reported Thursday morning that the total for the year stood at 5.23. Last year's total at the same time was 3.37.

The grand total last year was only 7.05. On January tenth a year ago it snowed.

Mrs. Fernandez New President Community Club

Mrs. Jake Van Dyke, 5252 Orange Ave., was hostess Tuesday afternoon to members and friends of the Cypress Women's Community club. She was assisted by Mrs. Mabelle Dyer.

Following a delightful dessert course of fruit cake and coffee, the club held its first business meeting of the new year. Mrs. Frank Noe, the outgoing president, presided. Before relinquishing the post she has held for two years, Mrs. Noe voiced her appreciation of the fine support she has received, and reviewed briefly the accomplishments of the group. She pointed out that the club has outgrown to a great extent its purely social aspects and has developed into a society which accomplishes much that is useful and purposeful. She was rewarded for her conscientious efforts by a grateful membership which presented her with an attractive billfold on which her name will be engraved.

Mrs. Betty Dyer, a former member, sent greetings from her new home in Midland, Texas. Mrs. Leo Smith was winner of the mystery prize, and it was announced that the February meeting will be a "Valentine pot luck" at the home of Mrs. Job Denni, 9512 South Juanita.

Mrs. Joe Fernandez, upon receiving the gavel from Mrs. Noe, announced that the committee who will visit the hospital this month includes Mrs. C. E. Swain, Mrs. Van Dyke and herself.

Welcomed to the meeting as new members were Mrs. E. E. Goodman, Mrs. Howard Kopsho, and Miss Beth Kroesen. Mrs. Gus Ehrig of Hudson, Iowa, was a visitor.

Other officers for this year are Mrs. Murton Jones, vice-president; Mrs. Barbara Young, secretary, and Mrs. A. E. Arnold, treasurer.

Arriving Friday for a brief visit from Minno, South Dakota, with his nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Kermit (Johnny) Johnson of 5661 Danny Ave., was Torval Hansen.

West Is Wilder—Animal Trainer Tames Four Here

If you see two elk, a buffalo and a moose walking down Lincoln Ave. some of these days, don't be hasty in making reservations in the nearest mental institution.

Howard Essex, brother of Earl Essex, and a man who is known to many, when he was a resident here, arrived last week from Livingstone, Montana. He drove a truck and pulled a trailer which contained his strange cargo, and his wife, Frances, brought the car out.

Essex has moved the outfit to Sam Rosen's, on South Walker, where he plans to train the animals for rodeo work.

So, when you look down Lincoln Ave. and see two elk, a moose and a buffalo being ridden or driven, take a deep breath, ask for the smelling salts, and start a new lease on life.

Firemen Diagnose Symptoms—Then Prescribe Remedy

Cypress volunteer firemen prescribed a good dose of soda—baking that is, for a stove which seemed to be all ablaze. Called to the home of Mrs. Albert Wilson, Orange Ave. and Juanita, it was discovered that a package of oleo left in the oven to soften had melted. Dripping onto the flame, it caught fire, smoking up the kitchen, but causing no serious damage.

Quick-thinking volunteers called for a large size package of baking soda which was handy.

The incident occurred at 5:15 p.m., Thursday, Jan. 5.

Mrs. Holborow Entertains For Daughter Marietta

Promised a party on the occasion of her seventh birthday, Marietta Holborow celebrated on Sunday afternoon, Jan. 8. Planned by her mother, Mrs. A. B. Holborow, the affair was unique in that the guests participated to provide a very interesting afternoon's entertainment.

The family's home, 8611 South Walker St., was decorated in pink and blue crepe paper streamers and inflated balloons. Theme of the celebration was a "baton" party, since Marietta is a member of Sybil Ring's majorettes.

As many of the guests are

MACKAY, VON TROTHAS WIN OTHER OFFICES

Balloting Monday night during the annual election of officers for the Cypress Chamber of Commerce resulted in James Broadbelt's winning the most votes for president. An active member of the group, he has served on several important committees and represented the local chamber on the board of directors of Associated chambers the past year.

Fred Mackay was re-elected vice-president, and the offices of secretary and assistant went to Don and Selma von Trotha, respectively, a husband and wife combination.

The three members gaining the highest number of votes in a seven-man field for directors were E. V. Corby, James Moss and Dick Hathcock.

Hathcock, who has capably led the organization during the past year, received a round of applause as he expressed his appreciation for the wonderful support he received from the members and his board. He especially lauded the work of the secretary, Frank Noe.

Transportation Big Problem

In accepting the gavel, a hand-wrought object donated in the past by Earl Sartwell, Broadbelt stated that he felt the chamber should stress the problem of transportation in the coming year. With the increase in businesses last year, and the prospect of more new houses and business expected this year, he felt that pressure should be brought to bear on the proper authorities.

Reports indicate that the Public Utilities commission will accept the recommendation of the Pacific Electric to operate its passenger service only as far as Bellflower from Los Angeles. E. E. Goodman, a resident of Cypress manor, and well versed in transportation, stated that he will continue his efforts to obtain a bus line between Hawaiian Gardens and Santa Ana. It is proposed to run the line across Carson and Lincoln Aves. to Stanton Ave., thence down Stanton and Garden Grove Blvd. into Santa Ana. He stated that preliminary estimates show costs to be almost prohibitive and that the Public Utilities commission is not altogether in favor. He expects to bring another report to the chamber at the next meeting.

Study Ambulance Service

The secretary was requested to write to the sheriff's office regarding proper procedures in getting an ambulance to answer emergency calls in the rural areas. It was pointed out by member "Frosty" Lowrey that private companies are hesitant about answering a call in the case of an accident occurring on public property because of the question of the individual's ability to pay. Much delay is caused by having to phone the sheriff's office.

The Christmas "kitty" idea, which proved popular last year, is being continued for 1950. Leona Murdock is chairman of the fund and will make an official report on receipts last year at the next meeting.

This is just a reminder that Uncle Sam is expecting money from quite a few people on or before January 15. Maybe you're one.

If you didn't have any, or not all of your tax withheld from your 1949 income, or if you had income of more than $100 from sources other than wages last year you have a fourth quarter installment payment to make.

Don't forget it.

I RISE TO REMARK

by John Phillips

The galleries were filled, with people standing in the niches against the walls. The floor was packed, with additional chairs back of the curved rows, and with special chairs for the Cabinet, and the officers of the two bodies of the Congress. A tightly packed row of pages, attaches and secret service men stood around the edges of the room.

The room itself was changed. The unsightly steel columns, which stood there for almost ten years, were gone. The roof had been raised, and the new ceiling looked like an inverted soup toureen, apparently made of the same material as the kitchen sink in the modern home. Indirect lighting had replaced direct lighting and the valuable old glass seals of the States were gone. A new row of painted seals ornamented the ceiling border. Loud speaking devices were along the south wall, and concealed outlets permitted the gallery visitors to hear.

Old Seats

Only the old chairs, for the members were unchanged, and were as uncomfortable as before. In the words of one Pennsylvania Congressman, the House has now been brought up to the level of the average movie house, but unless something is done about the seats, we shall have to elect pre-cushioned Representatives.

A little man was speaking from the rostrum. He is personally popular, and the big audience listened respectfully. He was, in effect, playing the record again that he played a year ago. Something for everybody; that is, everybody with a vote. The Indians were about the only group not mentioned. At one point there seemed to be a crack in the record. He had to go back and play it again at that point.

He had said, "Because of the ill-considered tax reduction of the 80th Congress, the Government is not receiving enough revenue to meet its necessary expenditures." The roar of laughter which greeted that statement was unprecedented during the reading of a Presidential message, and made it necessary for him to re-read the following paragraph. What the 80th Congress did was to cut the pattern of expenditures to fit the cloth of income. Seven million working people and small income families did not pay income taxes last year, because of that "ill-considered reduction." Will the President ask us to reimpose taxes on these families?

Income

You can read the speech in the papers. The President said the income for the average family, in the year 2000 would be three times the 1950 income. He didn't say what the taxes would be nor the value of the dollar.

He said, "Today, the free peoples of the world have new vigor and new hope for the cause of peace." He did not mention that we have lost Asia to the cause of freedom, nor did he mention that in 1945, at the close of the war, Russia ruled 190,000,000 people. In June 1948, Russia ruled 450,000,000 people, and today, she rules 800,000,000. These are not free people, and they do not have new vigor and new hope.

Another word that did not appear anywheres in the speech was the word "economy," meaning any thought of thrift, frugality, good husbandry, or sound and efficient management.

Phyllis Jean Cyr of Los Angeles had the misfortune to lose a pair of platinum ear rings valued at $700 in a Cypress tavern at 4606 Lincoln Ave., according to reports filed with the sheriff's office on Monday.

ATTACK VICTIM, SISTER, ENTER PLEA IN CHECK CASE

Probation hearings Jan. 20 in superior court will decide the fate of Rosenda Solis and his sister, Mrs. Rita Galaz, 19, of Buena Park, who have pleaded guilty to passing worthless checks last April 28 and May 15. Three checks were passed, all being fake payroll checks, and each for the amount of $58.04. Solis admitted passing one check, his sister the other two.

Mrs. Galaz figured in a sheriff's office report a few days ago, stating that she, and two younger girls, had been picked up by six Mexican youths, three of them paratroopers, and that three of them had attacked Mrs. Galaz.

CYPRESS BOY SCOUTS ENJOY CAMPING TRIP TO IRVINE PARK

By Joe Cram

Last Saturday, Jan. 7, at 10:30 the Cypress Boy Scouts left the scout house to go to Irvine Park. There were 14 boys and the scoutmaster. All of the Scouts had to bring their food. All of the Scouts had a very good time.

The scoutmaster, Frank Troutman, appointed two Junior patrol leaders and a Senior leader. The two Junior patrol leaders' names are Walter Bueck and Mickey Gowyd. The Senior patrol leader's name is Buddy Chambers.

Most of the boys brought sleeping bags or a lot of blankets. Most of the boys had to sleep together. The scoutmaster showed the scouts how to make a sleeping bag with blankets. The boys slept in an army barracks. There were six rooms in the barracks. There was another barracks where the Boy Scouts kept their food. There were seven in the Flaming arrow and seven in the Beaver patrol.

The Scout meeting has been changed from Tuesday to Friday at 7:30. The meeting will still be held at the VFW hall at the corner of Miller and Lincoln. The Scouts are planning to go to Idylwilde Feb. 4th or the 8th. The scoutmaster said that the Boy Scouts will go camping once a month. We are glad the Boy Scouts had a successful trip.

INJURED IN WRECK; SUE FOR DAMAGES

Mr. and Mrs. Steve P. DeGennaro and their 16-year-old daughter, Rita Jean, 8801 Hoffman St., filed suit for $35,000 damages in superior court within 22 hours of the time they suffered a car accident in Buena Park.

Harry Wright of Buena Park, was named defendant in the suit in which the three members of the DeGennaro family all claimed injuries.

Wright, a new resident of Buena Park, was formerly of Milo, Iowa.

Second Suit

Crash of two automobiles at La Palma Ave. and Hansen road, south of Buena Park, last Feb. 6, had its echo today in a superior court suit asking $62,300 damages.

Complaint was filed by James E. Bacon, rancher, and his wife. Both were injured when their car collided with a machine operated by David Bajema, defendant in the court action.

Bacon asked $50,000 for a compound skull fracture, six broken ribs, a neck injury, and five fractures of the pelvis. He further seeks $3300 for loss of income and special ranch expense incurred, besides an unstated sum for medical and hospital costs.

His wife, Mrs. Virgie Bacon, demands $4000 damages for her injuries and medical expenses, $2500 for loss of potential earnings as a school teacher, and $2500 for loss of her husband's companionship.

TAX LOAD DEPENDS ON CITIZENS EXPERTS DECLARE

The tax bill on Orange county's 204,100 people for 1950 will depend on citizen and legislative action, California Taxpayers' association said today.

"Public schools in the county have a decade of record-breaking attendance in prospect," the association warned. For 1948-49, average daily attendance amounted to 37,412 in the elementary and secondary schools of the county.

The total relief roll is at a postwar peak, with 5,465 people in the county receiving aid as needy aged, 155 as needy blind, 639 as dependent children, and 651 as general county indigents during October, 1949.

Schools and aid to the needy are only two of the many functions of government, each of which calls for taxes from the people.

Statewide, the tax bill for 1950 will approach $5 billion—an average of about $450 per person or around $1,800 per family of four, the association predicted.

"The peace-time tax bill on Americans, octopus-like, threatens the security and prosperity of the people," the Taxpayers' association warned.

"The only way the tax bill can be reduced is by reduction in government spending."

Let's not kid ourselves. Drivers who fail to obey the traffic laws are not good drivers. Traffic records from the California Highway Patrol indicate that drivers who obey the traffic rules have very few accidents.

GIRL SCOUT TROOPS HONOR FOUNDER LOWE WITH CEREMONIES

By Rosalie Miller and Ivey Giles, 6-A

All troops of Anaheim Girl Scout council are planning flags in honor of Juliet Lowe, founder of the Girl Scouts.

Cypress troop 14, grade 6, has the flag of Japan. Troop 12, seventh grade is going to make that of Chile. Eighth grade girls of troop 13 have the flag of Switzerland and troop 11 has China's flag.

In the past years on March 12, which is Juliette Lowe day, one girl has been chosen to represent each troop and to model some manner of clothing. This year all of the girls will participate by giving skits or a song about the nations whose flag they have made. All of the girls will say the Girl Scout laws in unison.

Every girl contributes a cent for each year she has lived to the Juliette Lowe World Friendship fund. All this will take part in the Anaheim Union High School on the Girl Scout birthday in March.

Visiting Native Of Switzerland Explains Maps

By Donald Adams, 6-A

On January 9, Felix Locher, a map-maker visited Mr. Winsor's eighth grade class. Mr. Locher gave them a lecture on maps.

The students found out many interesting things about these charts. Mr. Locher, who was born in Switzerland, helped to make maps during the war.

We hope the pupils take advantage of the many things which they have been taught.

COMMITTEEMAN CLAIMS MWD COSTS WILL RUIN FARMERS

Orange county may outgrow its present water supply, so rapidly is population increasing, but most farmers would rather go back to dry farming than pay the cost of Colorado river water from the Metropolitan water district. Such, at least, is the view of Dian Gardner of Orange, chairman of the Orange County Farm Bureau's water committee department.

Gardner indicated his belief that MWD water cost would bankrupt the ranchers. He made the statement at a meeting of the department members, where Col. M. B. Wellington of Santa Ana, counsel for five cities and several unincorporated communities that contemplate annexation to MWD, urged that additional territory be included.

Wellington's estimate of $20 per acre foot for MWD water was challenged by the department members, Ross Shafer of Tustin estimating a figure closer to $50 per acre foot, when hidden taxes and delivery costs are included.

Walter Schmid of Garden Grove, member of the regional water pollution control board, and Mrs. Lelia Baeskens of Orange, member of the state water pollution control board, were in attendance at the meeting.

Wellington stated that $143,000,000 of assessed valuation of property in Orange county now is within the Metropolitan water district, and cited the rapid growth of property values. One area near the coast which was assessed at $2500 in 1928 had a valuation of $804,000 in 1947, he said, pointing the need of protecting these valuations with water supply.

Among the spectators opening day at Knott's Berry farm for the new horse show were Mrs. W. J. McCoid and Mrs. Gerritt Plantinga. Their names were overlooked and the editor of this newspaper is sorry.

SALVATION ARMY APPEALS FOR NEW DONATIONS

A New Year appeal for castoff materials is being made today by Brigadier Fred Ohrn, manager of the Salvation Army social service center serving this area. Need for articles with which to replenish stocks depleted by large-scale Christmas aid activities was stressed.

"Calls for assistance to the needy were the heaviest in local history," Brig. Ohrn said, "and were far and above our anticipation. As a result we must have additional items which are no longer useful to present owners. These will be refinished and repaired in the social service center's workshops and placed in Salvation Army stores for redistribution."

Donations of throwaway materials will be picked up by Red Shield trucks by telephoning B.P. 377, the manager said. Clothing, shoes, furniture, stoves, refrigerators appliances and miscellaneous items are being sought.

Merry Yuletide

Hundreds of families awoke to a merrier Christmas this year and gave thanks for the helping hand extended by the Salvation Army, Brig. Ohrn revealed today. Three motherless children and their father, a veteran of World War I who is sick and unable to work, were among these. The children were given new shoes and boxes of Christmas foodstuffs were presented them.

The plight of Mrs. C................., recently widowed, and her two-year-old child was discovered by the Salvation Army and they were given aid. The little family resides in a tiny trailer, and was in dire need of food.

Unemployment

Current high unemployment rates were reflected in the case of a father and his five children. He had been unable to secure employment and Christmas looked as though it would be "just another day." Thanks to the Salvation Army social service center, the children, who ranged from three to ten years of age, were outfitted with shoes and clothing. On Christmas Day, a worker from the local center took toys and baskets of food to the grateful family.

TWO PERSONS HURT IN CAR WRECK ON GRAND AVENUE

Two persons suffered minor hurts in a collision at 10:00 a.m. Friday at Grand and La Palma Aves., near Buena Park.

Injured were Mrs. McPherson and Anna L. Thornburg, 71, of Glendale. Both were taken to Fullerton General hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Lew McLaughlin, winter visitors in Long Beach, from Geneseo, Illinois, were dinner guests Tuesday evening with her cousins, the Burt Kroesen family.

Orangethorpe Right-of-Way Strip Purchased

Charles E. Downey, county right-of-way agent, announced this week that the county board of supervisors had purchased property of Agnes E. Horn, Buena Park, including a filling station for $900 on Orangethorpe Ave., one of the last strips needed to complete an 80 foot right-of-way for the recently completed Orangethorpe road project.

The four-lane highway extends from Manchester Blvd. west to the Orange county-Los Angeles county line and work on widening was carried on with the understanding the county would wind up the side strip purchase as rapidly as possible.

Recent awarding of contracts for widening of Manchester Blvd. in Los Angeles county is a part of the state's program of making a four-lane divided highway but is not a part of the Santa Ana Freeway at present, county officials explained.

The four-laning is designed as a stop-gap improvement to aid heavy traffic. Manchester will ultimately form a portion of the freeway, however.

A son was born on New Year's day in Artesia hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Fields, on Walker St. The boy, their second, weighed seven pounds and three ounces. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Marco of Cypress and Mr. and Mrs. Green Fields of Buena Park.

Huge, 2400 Home Subdivision Planned For Buena Park

If tentative plans of the Norwalk Land and Realty Company materialize, a 500 acre tract in Buena Park will be converted to lots and 2400 new homes will be built.

According to a letter from the Realty company to the Buena Park Sanitary district, an option has been secured on the land located west of Hansen road between Orangethorpe and Artesia Aves. Progress on the project will depend in large part on whether sewage disposal can be provided and water secured to supply the immense tract. The Sanitary District Board referred the Realty company to their engineer without action for further study of costs and technical problems.

YOUNG MATRON ASSAULTED BY SIX YOUTHS

Alleged criminal assault upon Mrs. Rita Soliz Galaz, 19, of 9352 Pacific, Independencia colony, and narrow escape of two younger girls, sisters, aged 15 and 12, was being investigated by the sheriff's officers, seeking to locate three young Mexican paratroopers and three civilian youths accused by the girls.

Mrs. Galaz was dragged into an orange grove and attacked December 25 after she and the two younger girls had been forced into an automobile by the six youths, on Gilbert St., and driven to a cemetery north of Carmelita St., east of Stanton. Two of the youths attacked her, she claimed.

Meanwhile, one of the paratroopers started to molest the 12-year-old girl, and another youth interfered. A fight occurred between the two youths, and during this diversion the two young sisters made their escape and hid.

Later, the three girls walked to a highway, where a woman motorist gave them a ride to Norwalk. They reported the attack at the Norwalk substation of the Los Angeles county sheriff's office. Norwalk officers called the sheriff's office in Santa Ana, and deputies met the girls at the county line and brought them to their homes.

Your Child

A WEEKLY COLUMN

conducted by Claud C. Ruch

Educational Director, Childcraft Advisory Service in Chicago

In grandmother's day, painting a child's fingertips with a solution of bitter aloes was believed to be a cure for nail biting. Today child psychologists realize that the causes of this habit lie deeply within the personality of the child. They must be found and routed-out before a cure can be affected. According to the Childcraft Advisory Service, "nail biting . . . is almost always a sign that a child is disturbed."

This feeling may be caused by anxiety, fears, uneasiness, or lack of assurance. Generally, it is a sign of nervousness that is sometimes brought on by excitement or strain, such as seeing a "scary" movie or having to play in a piano recital. The youngest child in a family or group may start biting his nails under the tension of having to compete with and defend himself against older and bigger children.

It is so important for a child to know that he is loved and wanted by his family and friends, that anything which disturbs the feeling of security this knowledge gives him, may make him a nail biter.

All of you mothers at some time probably have known a child obviously in poor health who chronically bites his nails. The child whose talents and abilities are stretched beyond his years and means, frequently reflects the strain he is under by starting to bite his nails.

The wise mother today can successfully substitute love and care and tender understanding for the bitter aloes solution of grandmother's era to cure the habit of nail biting in children.

NUTRILITE COMPANY FILES DAMAGE SUIT AGAINST DENTIST

Asserted statements by Dr. Harold Stone, LaHabra dentist, that Nutrilite, a vitamin and mineral food manufactured in Buena Park, tends to cause cancer; that its distributor had been forced to resign from the Academy of Nutrition, or a similar organization, and other statements regarding the product, were false and malicious, Nutrilite Products, Inc., declares in a $6000 damage suit on file in superior court.

Loss of business resulted from the dentist's alleged statements, the Buena Park concern said, citing Earl and Leona Myers as an example of customers who have ceased using the product because of the defendant's asserted statements.

Nutrilite was described in the complaint as containing an ingredient known as the "Nutrilite base," highly concentrated extract of specially-grown alfalfa and water cress and parsley, made under secret process of the firm. Dr. Stone was alleged to have stated that the base was "nothing but clay."

Plaintiff asks $1000 actual damages and $5000 punitive damages.

There were 50 cases of mumps and 37 of chickenpox in Orange county for the two-week period ending December 31 according to the communicable disease report. Among the respiratory diseases, whooping cough was reported as 13 and tuberculosis, 10. Strep throat infections (including scarlet fever) totaled 17 cases.

COUNTY COMMENT

By GEORGE E. HART,
Orange County Press Bureau

SANTA ANA — Question for the Orange County taxpayer:

Is it cheaper to own your own home or pay rent,

The question applies to the county courthouse group and what to do about growing pains there.

The great, sprawling patchwork of buildings that have grown up about the old red courthouse of 1900 vintage, represent an official effort to keep up with growth of public business—anyhow with growth of public departments — without shooting a big wad of taxpayers' money at one time.

Effort Fails

The effort has signally failed. First, the hall of records took the overflow of space needs from the red courthouse, back in the twenties. The courthouse annex, one-time inn, took subsequent overflow from both buildings.

Still the departments grew and demanded more space. The supervisors scratched their heads and began buying up an old house here another one there, trying to keep up.

A big private laboratory in Anaheim was purchased for agriculture. The road department may soon move to the old juvenile home, if, as and when a new one is built, as recommended by the county grand jury.

Old Buildings

Thus, the county now owns a conglomeration of old and scattered structures, an arrangement which does little for coordination and efficiency of inter-department contacts.

Even with sundry acquisitions of property, the county still hasn't collected all of its departments under its own roof. The county school superintendent, county library, farm advisor, board of education and veterans service center, all occupy rented quarters.

The three first mentioned are housed in the city of Santa Ana's community center buildings, bequeathed by the army air force. Rental of various quarters amounts to $22,281.60 per year. Of this sum, the veterans service center costs $6000 a year, the county library the same amount, the schools department $7860, the farm advisor $2100, the board of education $321.60.

Own or Pay Rent?

That brings up the question whether it's cheaper to own or pay rent. Rental now paid would not compensate for all interest charges on bonds for an adequate building program, which probably would cost four or five million dollars. But at an interest rate of 2 per cent, regarded as likely, the $32,281.60 would carry the interest on $1,114,000 in bonds.

As it happens, the county supervisors' building plans have not contemplated a bond issue. The building program would be spaced out over a period of probably ten years, it is believed, under a unit plan. All that, of course is tentative.

At any rate, it all adds up to an interesting question for the taxpayer.

Playing Santa Claus can be quite a steady business, outside of Washington, D. C. One county library employe, Ross Taylor, who happens to be good at it, made 16 appearances as Santa Claus at juvenile gatherings, in schools and elsewhere, this past holiday season. That's a lot of chimney sweeping
